

Assignment No. 01 Solution Spring 2025

MGT611-Business & Labor Law

Solution:

Case#	Answer
a	No, the contract cannot be enforced. Since the car was destroyed without either party's fault before delivery, the agreement is void due to impossibility of performance under Section 56 of the Contract Act.
b	No, Zara cannot recover the money. The agreement is illegal and void as it involves a criminal act. Courts do not support claims arising from illegal contracts.
c	This is an executed contract because both parties fulfilled their obligations at the time of the transaction. Basit has no obligation to refund unless it is proven that he knowingly sold a fake item, which could involve fraud
d	Yes, Dr. Abdullah is entitled to payment under the principle of quasi-contract . Even though there was no formal agreement, he provided necessary services, and the law requires fair compensation in such cases.
